

German TV ProSieben Galileo featured Magnetic Man.

German TV program called "Galileo" featured one of my images in their program and telling the story behind them.

In spite all the marvelous medical and scientific advances in the last 50 years in terms of gaining any comprehensive understanding, the process is indeed only in it's infancy.

In other words we are at the stage where we seem to rather than solving problems or providing answers only discovering more questions.